claim to the great estate. Virtue, uprightness, self-sacrifice and devotion to the public weal, beroic purpose, practical effort for the purest and highest ideals must be the title deed to share in this precious patrimony. Who dare add a word to such oracles? Who dare venture a note in such anthem? Surely spirits of heroes rise from the dead to urge anew the appeals of their own lives that we all should walk in the path of patriotic duty and each do well his full share of the labor of mind and soul, and body to preserve and hand to posterity the legacy we have enjoyed."
